

Rosmarie H. Frederickson

Rosmarie has long been involved in the Los Alamos Branch of the American Association of University Women which promotes education for all, and pay equality for women. Rosmarie served on the AAUW board for over a decade and as treasurer for five years.

She helps organize and judge the annual Science Fair in the public schools and has worked on teaching the “Reading Math” program to help youngsters overcome their fear of math.

A member of the Red Cross Disaster Assistance Team which helps make sure food and shelter are available to those facing a crisis situation, she also served on the volunteer LA Bus board which helped to bring bus service to Los Alamos before the County was able to take it over.

Currently, Rosmarie devotes most of her volunteer hours to the League of Women Voters and serves on the board of LA Cares.
